PURPLE FOR PARENTS OF INDIANA CALLS ON INDIANA ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE OFFICE OF BUDGET MANAGEMENT TO INVESTIGATE INDIANA UNIVERSITY AND THE KINSEY INSTITUTE FOR THE POTENTIAL USE OF HOOSIER TAX DOLLARS TO SPONSORSHIP BLOOMINGTON'S PRIDE FESTIVAL 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nappanee, IN (August 26, 2023)—In light of events that took place at the Bloomington Pride Fest on Saturday, August 26, 2023, Purple for Parents of Indiana is calling on Indiana Attorney General, Todd Rokita, and the Office of Budget Management to investigate Indiana University and the Kinsey Institute for potential use of taxpayer dollars in sponsoring this event.

Those listed as sponsoring this hedonistic event included Indiana University Alumni Association LGBTQ+ Alumni Association, Indiana University Kelley School of Business, Indiana University Office of Provost and Executive Vice President, Kinsey Institute, IU Credit Union, Upland Brewing Co., Graduate Bloomington, Cook Medical, Old National Bank, Youth Services Bureau of Monroe County, WFIU Public Radio, WTIU, Gather, Chase, South Central Community Action Program (SCCP)

Colleagues of Purple for Parents of Indiana attended this sexually perverse event and captured pictures of minor children being subjected to sexually provocative performances by drag queens and various other activities.

Additionally, Purple for Parents of Indiana calls on our elected officials to take action to address these sexual performances and the exposure to and trafficking of young children through these Drag Queen performances.
