

MEMORANDUM

TO: Purple for Parents United Followers and Supporters

FROM: CEO, Rhonda Miller and President, Jon Schrock

DATE: FEBRUARY 4, 2025

SUBJECT: The Future of Purple for Parents United

The future of Purple For Parents United is brighter than ever as the movement surges forward with unstoppable momentum! CEO Rhonda Miller is launching a groundbreaking multi-state speaking tour, delivering truth and action-based solutions to the challenges facing local farmers and parents. With an unwavering commitment to exposing corruption, Rhonda and the Purple For Parents team are intensifying their efforts against the Kinsey Institute and the broader, methodical assault on family and biblical values. Meanwhile, President Jon Schrock is leading a grassroots revolution, training and equipping passionate citizens across the country. His unparalleled expertise in grassroots activism has made him one of the most sought-after speakers in the nation, ensuring that the Purple For Parents mission continues to expand and empower communities. The movement is growing, the impact is undeniable, and the fight for families, faith, and freedom is stronger than ever!

Purple For Parents United is proud to join forces with organizations and influencers who uphold the highest standards of ideological, moral, and ethical values. Through these powerful partnerships, our reach and impact are expanding daily, creating a nationwide movement dedicated to protecting families, faith, and freedom. By standing together, we amplify our voices, expose corruption, and implement real, action-based solutions that strengthen communities. Your partnership with Purple For Parents isn't just symbolic—it's a catalyst for meaningful, tangible change that will be felt in schools, local governments, and homes across the country. Now is the time to unite, take action, and restore the foundational values that make our communities strong!
